DIGEST

SB 217 Original | 2024 Regular Session | Miguez

Present law defines the terms "federal election", "federal office", "immediate family", "parish governing authority" or "governing authority of the parish", "party affiliation" and "affiliation with a political party", "Party primary office", "polling place", "primary election", "signature", "under an order of imprisonment", "voter registration agency", "voting district", and "ward".

Proposed law retains present law and defines the term "deep fake" as the use of manipulated images or audio or visual depictions of a candidate for office with the intent to deceive members of the public as being a genuine representation of the candidate.

Effective August 1, 2024.
