DIGEST

SB 29 Original | 2015 Regular Session | Cortez

Present law, relative to municipal fire and police civil service for municipalities with a population between 13,000 and 250,000, provides that promotions to vacant positions shall be filled by qualified applicants in order of seniority in total departmental service.

Proposed law retains present law, but makes an exception for the Lafayette Police Department. Provides that when a vacant position in the Lafayette Police Department is filled by a promotion, it shall be by qualified applicants in the order of seniority in the next preceding lower rank.

Proposed law provides that seniority in a rank for purposes of promotions shall be determined by the employee's total number of cumulative days of service in the rank. Provides that days of service shall include days assigned in probational, provisional, and permanent status in the rank, but shall not include any days of service assigned in substitute status.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
