WEAPONS/FIREARMS: Adds current and retired attorney generals and designated assistant attorneys general to list of officials who can carry concealed weapons

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

1. Changes references from "Council on Peace Officer Standards and Training" to "Peace Officer Standards and Training Council" to reflect the council's current name.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law provides for the crime of illegal carrying of weapons and identifies certain active and retired public officials who can lawfully carry concealed weapons.

Proposed law retains present law but adds the current attorney general and retired attorney generals and certain assistant attorneys general to the list of those who can lawfully carry concealed weapons.

Proposed law requires certain retired public officials to qualify annually in the use of firearms by the Peace Officer Standards and Training Council.
