Roy (HB 327) Act No. 272

Existing law creates and provides for the Alexandria Central Economic Development District as a political subdivision of the state. Provides that the district is created for the primary purpose of redevelopment of the central business district. Provides that the district is governed by a board of nine commissioners. Establishes the district's boundaries.

New law expands the district's boundaries.

Effective upon signature of governor (June 28, 2011).
