EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION
There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. The Office of Motor Vehicles will be able to implement the changes provided by this legislation without incurring increased expenditures.

REVENUE EXPLANATION
This bill will result in an indeterminable increase in statutory dedicated revenues. Neither the Legislative Fiscal Office nor the Office of Motor Vehicles is able to anticipate the increased revenue resulting from the changes proposed in this legislation. Neither office is able to anticipate the number of people who may request a converted title, the number of persons who will request expedited processing of a motor vehicle title or the number of perfected lien holders who may request a certified copy of title. The legislation authorizes OMV to charge lenders up to $1.50 per title for conversion of a paper title to an electronic title, and $10 per transaction for an expedited motor vehicle title. All additional revenue will be deposited in the Office of Motor Vehicles Customer Service and Technology Fund.
