

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 392 (HB 189)

2019 Regular Session

Jim Morris

New law prohibits a political subdivision, when filling an employment position, from inquiring about a prospective employee's arrest record on the initial application form. Provides that new law does not prohibit a political subdivision from inquiring about a prospective employee's other criminal history on an initial application form. Exempts employment positions for which a background check is required by law from new law.

Effective August 1, 2019.

(Amends heading of Chapter 29 of Title 42; Adds R.S. 42:1702)