31 following:32 "J.(1) The benefits of any retiree of this system who retires on or after July 33 1, 2021, and becomes employed by an employer but does not meet the definition of 34 an employee within the twenty-four-month period immediately following the 35 effective date of his retirement shall be suspended for the duration of such 36 employment or the lapse of twenty-four months from the effective date of retirement, 37 whichever occurs first, even if such service is part-time, based on employment by 38 contract, or in a non-qualifying position.

1 (2)(a) The retiree and his employer shall immediately notify the board of the 2 retiree's date of employment. If failure to give notice of employment results in any 3 payment being made in violation of this Section, the employer shall be liable to the 4 system for the repayment of such amounts.

5 (b) The employer shall be charged interest at the legal rate which shall be 6 due from the date of the payment to the retiree.

7 (c) Any employer that fails to pay the system for overpayments under this 8 Section within ninety days from the date that the benefit was paid shall be liable for 9 a penalty of twenty-five percent of each monthly retirement benefit payment that was 10 not repaid in full with interest.

11 (d) The employer shall also reimburse the system for any legal fees paid by 12 the system in the collection of amounts pursuant to this Subsection.

13 (3) The provisions of this Subsection shall also apply to Hazardous Duty
 14 Subplan and Non-hazardous Duty Subplan retirees who retire on or after July 1, 15 2021.

16 K.(1) The board of trustees shall use all reasonable means to collect benefits paid
 17 by the system to an individual who was not due the benefit. The right to collect any benefit 18 paid to a member, retiree, surviving spouse, surviving child, or optional beneficiary to whom 19 the benefit was not due shall prescribe after a period of three years has elapsed from the date
 20 of the payment, except in the case of fraud. If any individual receiving a payment committed 21 a fraud against the system, the collection of such fraudulent payment shall prescribe after a 22 period of thirty years from the date of payment.

23 (2) The provisions of this Subsection do not apply to payments made to a 24 retiree that were not due under Subsection J of this Section.

25 (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of 11:192, if the system pays a sum of 26 money or benefits totaling at least five thousand dollars to a retiree, beneficiary, or 27 survivor that is not due them and the retiree, beneficiary, or survivor is entitled to 28 future benefits, the board of trustees shall adjust the amount payable to the correct 29 amount and then actuarially reduce the corrected amount to account for the entire 30 amount of overpayments plus legal interest from the date of the overpayment.
 31 Unless the overpayment was due to the fault of the system, the retiree, beneficiary, 32 or survivor's benefit shall also be reduced to account for any cost incurred by the 33 system to calculate the actuarial reduction.

34 L. Notwithstanding R.S. 11:143(D)(5), any member who transferred service 35 credit from another system, fund, or plan at an accrual rate that is lower than the 36 accrual rate of the transferring system, may elect to upgrade the accrual rate of all 37 or a portion of his transferred service credit by paying an amount calculated on an 38 actuarial basis that totally offsets the increase in accrued liability of the receiving 39 system resulting from the accrual rate upgrade."
