A. No natural or juridical person that designs, manufactures, labels, or distributes personal protective equipment in response to the COVID-19 public health emergency shall be liable for civil damages for injury or death caused by such personal protective equipment, unless such damages were caused by the gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct.

B. During the COVID-19 public health emergency, no natural or juridical person who uses, employs, dispenses, or administers personal protective equipment shall be liable for civil damages for injury or death resulting from or related to such personal protective equipment, unless the person failed to substantially comply with the applicable procedures established by federal, state, or local agencies which govern such personal protective equipment and the injury or death was caused by the person's gross negligence or wanton or reckless misconduct. If two or more sources of procedures are applicable to the use, employment, dispensing, or administering
