DIGEST

Present law provides certain rights and privileges afforded to employees who are citizens of this state who perform service in the uniformed services of the United States. Provides certain rights with respect to leave status and reemployment rights, in addition to other rights and privileges.

Present law provides procedures for the employee who has completed his active duty to follow in applying for reemployment with his former employer.

Proposed law provides procedures for such employee to follow in notifying his employer of his intention to return to his employment.

Proposed law provides that nothing therein restricts an employer's right to condition reemployment on its policies and procedures applicable to employees returning from leave, provided such policies and procedures are not in conflict with this and the other provisions of the Military Service Relief Act.
