PUBLIC CONTRACTS

Purpose of Bill: (Constitutional Amendment) Provides for the donation or exchange of movable surplus property between or among political subdivisions whose functions involve public safety

The proposed measure would result in increased expenditures for the Department of State for placing the constitutional amendment on the 1999 gubernatorial ballot.

The proposed measure would not have an impact on local revenues. However, there may be a potential for cost savings (decrease in expenditures) for the local entities that will be able to receive donated property or exchange movable surplus property instead of purchasing property.
