A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing to amend Article I, Section 17(A) of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to jury trials in criminal cases; to provide for with respect to the waiver of a trial by jury; to provide that a criminal defendant's waiver of a jury trial shall be contingent upon the prosecution's consent and court approval; to provide for submission of the proposed amendment to the electors; and to provide for related matters.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Article I, Section 17(A) of the Constitution of Louisiana, to read as follows:

§17. Jury Trial in Criminal Cases; Joinder of Felonies; Mode of Trial

Section 17.(A) Jury Trial in Criminal Cases. A criminal case in which the punishment may be capital shall be tried before a jury of twelve persons, all of whom must concur to render a verdict. A case in which the punishment is necessarily confinement at hard labor shall be tried before a jury of twelve persons, ten of whom must concur to render a verdict. A case in which the punishment may be confinement at hard labor or confinement without hard labor for more than six months shall be tried before a jury of six persons, all of whom must concur to render a verdict. The accused shall have a right to full voir dire examination of prospective

1 jurors and to challenge jurors peremptorily. The number of challenges shall be fixed
2 by law. Except in capital cases, a defendant may knowingly and intelligently waive
3 his right to a trial by jury, with the approval of the court and the consent of the 4 prosecuting attorney.

Montoucet HB No. 940

Abstract: Provides for a criminal defendant in certain cases to waive trial by jury with the consent of the prosecutor and court approval.

Present constitution (Art. I, §17(A)) permits a criminal defendant, except in capital cases, to knowingly and intelligently waive his right to a trial by jury.

Proposed constitutional amendment retains present constitution (Art. I, §17(A)) but requires the waiver to have the consent of the prosecuting attorney and court approval.

Proposed constitutional amendment, if approved by a majority of voting electors, shall become effective 20 days after proclamation by the governor that the amendment has been adopted.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held Nov. 2, 2010.

(Amends Const. Art. I, §17(A))
