SB No. 147

Present constitution establishes the Budget Stabilization Fund in the constitution and provides the following revenues are to be deposited into the fund:

- (1) Monies available for appropriation in excess of the expenditure limit.
- (2) All mineral revenues received by the state in each fiscal year in excess of the base, which, by legislative act, was increased to $850 million.
- (3) 25% of any monies recognized by the Revenue Estimating Conference as nonrecurring.
- (4) Any other monies appropriated to the fund by the legislature including the balance of any monies declared to be nonrecurring.

Proposed constitutional amendment retains present constitution.

Present constitution permits up to 1/3 of the Budget Stabilization Fund, subject to 2/3 approval of each house of the legislature, to be incorporated in the next fiscal year's official forecast if revenue estimates for the next fiscal year are less than the official forecast for the current fiscal year. Present constitution further permits up to 1/3 of the Budget Stabilization Fund, subject to 2/3 approval of each house of the legislature, to be appropriated for the current fiscal year budget if a deficit for the current fiscal year is projected due to a decrease in the official forecast.

Proposed constitutional amendment retains present constitution.

Proposed constitutional amendment provides that if the balance in the fund is at its maximum during the fiscal year and money in the fund is made available for appropriation or use as provided in present constitution, no deposit to the fund of mineral revenues shall be made in the fiscal year for which money in the fund is appropriated or for which money in the fund is incorporated into the official forecast nor for the ensuing fiscal year. Proposed constitutional amendment further provides that all other deposits, except mineral revenues, shall continue to be made to the fund in the fiscal year for which money in the fund is appropriated or incorporated into the official forecast or for the ensuing fiscal year.

Specifies submission of the amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held on October 22, 2011.

Effective July 1, 2012, if approved by voters.
