§3392. Definitions

As used in this Chapter, the following words have the meaning ascribed to them in this Section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(13) "In good standing" means the status of a licensee who has complied with all explicit license obligations thereby having unabated authority to conduct license activities.

§3396. Applications

B. Appropriate fees, as set forth in R.S. 37:3407, shall accompany all applications for examination, experience review, and license renewal certification.

D.(1) Licenses shall be granted only to persons who have attained the age of eighteen years, who hold a high school diploma or its equivalent, and who bear a good reputation for honesty, trustworthiness, integrity, and competence to perform real estate appraisals and only after satisfactory proof of such qualifications has been presented to the board: satisfied the minimum education, examination, and experience requirements mandated by the Appraiser Qualifications Board (AQB) of the Appraisal Foundation and published in the most current version of the Real Property Appraiser Qualification Criteria, including any subsequent amendments and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(2) All applicants for a real estate appraiser license shall undergo a background screening as mandated by the Appraiser Qualifications Board (AQB) of the Appraisal Foundation and prescribed by the board.

(2)(3) When an applicant has been convicted of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretense, larceny, extortion, conspiracy to defraud, or theft, or has been convicted of a felony or a crime of moral turpitude in any court of competent jurisdiction, such untrustworthiness of the applicant or the conviction itself may be sufficient grounds for refusal to issue a license.
(4) When an applicant has made a false statement of material fact on his application, such false statement may in itself be sufficient grounds for refusal to issue a license.

F.

(2) An applicant whose license, or its equivalent, has been revoked shall meet all requirements of an initial applicant and shall present evidence of completion of fifteen hours of continuing education for each renewal period, or portion thereof, following the date on which the license, or its equivalent, was revoked.

§3397. License classifications; criteria

B.(1)(a) Applicants for a real estate appraiser trainee license shall be subject to the following training and direct supervision by a certified appraiser who meets all of the following qualifications:

(i) Has been licensed as a certified real estate appraiser for at least three years prior to becoming a supervising appraiser.

(ii) Is in good standing as a certified residential or certified general real estate appraiser.

(a) The Competency Provision of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP):

(b) Training and direct supervision by an appraiser who is licensed and in good standing as a residential real estate appraiser or a general real estate appraiser.

Both the trainee applicant and the supervising appraiser shall complete a course that complies, at minimum, with the specifications for course content established by the Appraiser Qualifications Board (AQB) of the Appraisal Foundation. The course shall be oriented toward the requirements and responsibilities of supervising appraisers and expectations for trainee appraisers.

The course shall be completed by the trainee appraiser prior to obtaining a trainee appraiser license and by the supervising appraiser prior to supervising a trainee appraiser. The supervising appraiser shall not have been subject to any disciplinary action within the last three years that affects the supervisor’s legal eligibility to engage in appraiser practice. The appraiser trainee is permitted to have more than one supervising appraiser. The scope of work for the real estate appraiser trainee is limited to the appraisal of those properties that the supervising real estate appraiser is licensed to appraise.

   (c) Completion of seventy-five classroom hours of qualifying education, or its equivalent, in core education subjects that include thirty hours of basic appraisal principles, thirty hours of basic appraisal procedures, and the fifteen-hour National Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice course, or its equivalent, and passage of a final examination in each course. These hours may be credited toward the educational requirement for all appraiser license classifications:

   (3) The real estate appraiser trainee shall maintain a separate appraisal log for each supervising licensed appraiser that includes, at a minimum, the following information for each appraisal:
   * * *

   (d) Description of work performed by the appraiser trainee and supervising appraiser.
   (e) Number of actual work hours.
   (f) Name, signature, and state license number of the supervising licensed appraiser.

   (4) As a prerequisite to license renewal, all appraiser trainees who have been licensed in excess of two years shall be required to obtain continuing education that is the equivalent to fifteen of fourteen classroom hours of instruction continuing education per calendar for each year.

   (5) The real estate appraiser trainee shall be entitled to obtain copies of appraisal reports prepared by the trainee. The supervising appraiser shall keep copies of the trainee appraisal reports for a period of at least five years or at least two years after final disposition of any judicial proceeding in which testimony is given, whichever period expires last.

§3397.1. Certified residential and certified general appraisers; continuing education

As a prerequisite to license renewal, all certified residential and certified general appraisers shall complete the equivalent of fourteen hours of continuing education instruction per calendar year.

§3398. Examination
