EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

Proposed law enacts the National Association of Insurance Commissioners' Corporate Governance Annual Disclosure Act (CGAD). All insurers domiciled in Louisiana will be required to disclose an annual CGAD with their annual report. The commissioner is authorized to promulgate rules, regulations and orders necessary to carry out the provisions. LDI promulgates rules on a regular basis as part of its general operations and has sufficient resources to carry out this requirement.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.

Proposed law provides for penalties on insurers failing to timely file a CGAD of $100 per day not to exceed a maximum of $10,000. LDI does not anticipate industry noncompliance with proposed law and does not anticipate the necessity to assess any penalties.

To the degree that any insurer may not comply with the timely filing of a CGAD, penalties may be charged against the insurer at a rate of $100 per day not to exceed $10,000. Penalties are to be recovered by the commissioner and deposited upon receipt in the state treasury. Proposed law does not specify to which account any such penalties would be deposited. The LFO assumes such deposits are made into the State General Fund.
