CONGRESS: Applies to the U.S. Congress to call a convention for the purpose of proposing amendments to the U.S. Constitution to address concerns raised by the 2010 decision of the Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission.
WHEREAS, Article V of the United States Constitution requires the United States Congress, upon application of two-thirds of the legislatures of the several states, to call a convention for the purpose of proposing amendments to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the state of Louisiana sees the need for a convention for the purpose of proposing amendments to the United States Constitution in order to address concerns raised by the decision of the United States Supreme Court in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission and related cases and events, including those occurring long before or afterward, and desires that the convention should be limited to such purposes or substantially similar purposes; and

WHEREAS, the state of Louisiana desires that the delegates to the convention shall be comprised equally from individuals currently elected to state and local office or be selected by election in each congressional district and that all individuals elected or appointed to federal office, now or in the past, be prohibited from serving as delegates to the convention, and the state of Louisiana intends to retain the ability to restrict or expand the power of its delegates within the limits expressed in this Resolution.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that, pursuant to Article V of the Constitution of the United States and effective upon adoption of this Resolution, the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby make application to the Congress of the United States to call a convention for the specific and exclusive purpose of proposing an amendment or amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, for submission to the states for ratification, to address concerns raised by the decision of the United States Supreme Court in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission and related cases and events.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this application and request be deemed null and void, rescinded, and of no effect if such convention is not limited to such specific and exclusive purpose.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this application by this legislature constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the Constitution of the United States until at least a two-thirds of the legislatures of the several states have made application for a similar convention pursuant to Article V.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the clerk of the Louisiana House of Representatives shall transmit copies of this Concurrent Resolution to the president of the United States, to the president and the secretary of the United States Senate, to the speaker and clerk of the United States House of Representatives, to each member of this state's delegation to the congress, and to the presiding officer of each house of each state legislature in the United States requesting the cooperation of the several states in applying to congress to call a convention for the purpose of proposing amendments pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution for the purpose provided in this Resolution.

HCR 13 Original 2016 Regular Session Richard

Applies to the U.S. Congress to call a convention, pursuant to Article V of the U.S. Constitution, for the sole and limited purpose of proposing an amendment or amendments to the U.S. Constitution to address concerns raised by the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court in the case of Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, which removed restrictions on amounts of independent political spending.

Expressions intent that convention delegates be comprised equally from individuals currently elected to state and local office, or be selected by election in each congressional district, and that individuals elected or appointed to federal office, now or in the past, be prohibited from serving as delegates. Also expresses intent of the state of La. to retain the ability to restrict or expand the power of its delegates within the limits expressed in the resolution.
