

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

SR 87

2016 Regular Session

Martiny

New rule requires a public employee who is a designee of an elected official appearing before a committee to testify to identify himself and the elected official he represents. Requires the designee to file a written statement from the elected official evidencing the designation and certification that the designee is acting within the performance of his official public duties with the committee chairman. Provides that the written statement and certification have to be submitted on forms promulgated by the Secretary of the Senate.

(Amends Senate Rule No. 13.78(B)(2))