18 D. When modification and parole is not prohibited by Article 897.1, 19 if an order of commitment to custody of the Department of Public Safety and 20 Corrections is subsequently modified and the child is placed on parole, the 21 maximum term of parole shall be the remainder of the sentence originally 22 imposed.

23 E. These maximums do not apply if:

24 (1) The child was under thirteen at the time of a commitment to 25 custody of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections, in which case 26 the judgment shall terminate upon the child's reaching age eighteen.

27 (2) A portion of an order of commitment was suspended, when 28 permitted by law, in which case the term of parole shall end when the time 29 period so suspended has elapsed.

30 (3) The child is tried as an adult and is convicted of, or pleads guilty
31 to a felony after having been committed to the Department of Public Safety 32 and Corrections. In this instance, after sentencing, the department shall have 33 the authority to keep the offender in custody according to terms of the 34 juvenile disposition, or to transfer him to serve his adult sentence. The 35 department shall retain such authority until the expiration of the juvenile

1 commitment when, if not effected earlier, the individual will be transferred 2 to begin serving the adult sentence.

3 (4) The judgment expires by its own terms, is modified when 4 permitted by law, or is vacated.

5 (5) The child reaches age twenty-one.

6 (6) The child is ordered to participate in a juvenile drug court
7 program operated by a court of this state, as a condition of probation, so long 8 as the child is a full-time participant in such juvenile drug court program.
