HB 315 Original

2017 Regular Session

Bishop

Abstract: Specifies that beverages of high and low alcoholic content may be donated to certain organizations and events.

Present law authorizes the donation of alcoholic beverages to licensed Type A special events or unlicensed civic, religious, or charitable organizations, subject to applicable excise taxes.

Proposed law amends present law to clarify that present law applies to beverages of high and low alcoholic content.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
