

---

DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

---

SB 190 Reengrossed

2019 Regular Session

Chabert

Present law provides for the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority Board to be composed of the leadership of various state agencies, departments, commissions of the executive, and legislative branches of state government or their designees.

Proposed law adds the lieutenant governor or his designee to the board, and requires the designee to be an employee of the office of the lieutenant governor.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends R.S. 49:214.5.1(B)(15) and (C), Adds R.S. 49:214.5.1(D))

Summary of Amendments Adopted by Senate

Senate Floor Amendments to engrossed bill

1. Retains ex officio status (no authority to vote and attendance does not count towards a quorum) of both the House of Representative and Senate members.
2. Requires all designees to be employees of the respective state agency, department, or commission, or be members of the respective legislative entity.

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Natural Resources and Environment to the reengrossed bill:

1. Remove the requirement that the designees be employees of the respective state agency, department, or commission, or be members of the respective legislative entity.
2. Make technical changes.