EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

Under current law, 45% of the annual settlement proceeds (approximately $24 million) flow to the Budget Stabilization Fund (BSF). This allows the official revenue forecast for FY20 and beyond (April 10, 2019 latest) to only dedicate $1 million of general fund revenue to the BSF under the requirements of R.S. 39:94(A)(3), rather than $25 million. The diversion of that portion of the annual settlement proceeds to the specified projects and TTF as provided by this bill, results in an additional $24 million of general fund dedication to the BSF. Thus, general fund revenue decline by $24 million, beginning in FY21, as displayed in the table above. Dedications as provided by the bill increase by a like amount, but are not separately shown since further shifting of dedications is discussed below.

The diversion of the remainder of the annual proceeds to the specified projects and TTF shifts resources to a new dedication and away from the current dedications. That is a neutral effect in the dedication financing of the table above. The purposes for which the current law dedication is anticipated ($24 million for the Medicaid Trust Fund for the Elderly, and $5.3 million for the Health Trust Fund) will receive no funding from this source, while the purposes of the proposed dedication in this bill will receive funding from this source. Currently, HB 105 Reengrossed, based on the REC forecast for FY20 of June 26, 2018, indicates some $19 million of FY19 Existing Operating Budget and $1.6 million of FY20 appropriation associated with the Medicaid Trust Fund for the Elderly, as well as some $8.4 million of FY19 Existing Operating Budget and $5.3 million of FY20 appropriation associated with the Health Trust Fund. The FY20 appropriations may change by final enactment of HB 105.
