15 Western Union, a vital communication link in the world of the 1940s; and

16 WHEREAS, Rose Ashy Broussard was engaged with her family, church, and 17 community throughout her life, including involvement in the American Lebanese Syrian
18 Associated Charities (ALSAC), an umbrella group founded by the comedian and celebrity

1 Danny Thomas in 1957; and

2 WHEREAS, the sole purpose of this group is to raise the funds and awareness
3 necessary to operate and maintain St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, 4 Tennessee, which focuses on the treatment of childhood cancer and is a free facility for all 5 children regardless of their family's ability to pay; and

6 WHEREAS, ALSAC is responsible for raising approximately eighty percent of the 7 funds necessary to operate and maintain St. Jude Hospital that serves children from all fifty 8 of the United States and from around the world; and

9 WHEREAS, Rose Broussard was a leader in fundraising through ALSAC and she 10 served locally in the roles of secretary and treasurer for the local group; and

11 WHEREAS, in the area of civic involvement, Mrs. Broussard served as the Lion's 12 Club president of the American Legion Women's Auxiliary, served on the Yambilee Festival
13 Court in Opelousas, Louisiana, and was Chic a la Pie Queen Jambalaya XXIX, a Mardi Gras 14 celebration in Vermilion Parish; and

15 WHEREAS, service to her church and its congregants included serving as a 16 Catechism teacher for fifteen years; she served as church secretary, and as president of the 17 Immaculate Conception Lady's Altar Society and her dedication and service were 18 acknowledged with the presentation of the Bishop's Service Award for the Diocese of 19 Lafayette, the receipt of the Raywood Mouton Service Award, and the Kaplan Chapter of 20 the Woman of the Year Award; and

21 WHEREAS, keeping her focus on her children and the children of Vermilion Parish, 22 Rose Broussard cofounded the Forked Island Cub Scout Den, serving as its scout leader, she 23 served as a 4-H leader, and worked tirelessly to obtain funding for a Head Start program and 24 for a French language program in the parish; and

25 WHEREAS, Rose Broussard played a key role in securing funding for the 26 construction of the Louisiana Highway 82 Intracoastal Waterway Bridge which is essential 27 to the travel of residents and visitors to southern Vermilion Parish; and

28 WHEREAS, Mrs. Broussard was politically active and served the Louisiana 29 Democratic party in several capacities, including as a member of the state central committee, 30 as an election commissioner on election day for many years, and as a convention delegate

1 representing Louisiana at the Democratic National Convention; and

2 WHEREAS, Rose Broussard worked alongside her husband, Charles, on their cattle 3 ranch and rice farm, particularly in marketing and promotional roles; and

4 WHEREAS, Mrs. Broussard was a member of and served as secretary of the 5 Vermilion Parish Cattlemen, and as publicity chair of the state organization; and

6 WHEREAS, Rose and Charles traveled extensively regionally, attending annual 7 livestock shows where they promoted the quality of the breeds of cattle they raised: 8 Brahman, Charolais, and Charbray; and

9 WHEREAS, each March Rose traveled the state during Beef Month and also 10 promoted the "Ag in the Classroom" and the "Beef for Father's Day" programs; and

11 WHEREAS, the Louisiana Cattle Festival named Rose their Honoree of the Year, 12 focusing on her tireless advocacy encouraging Louisianians to eat more Louisiana beef; and

13 WHEREAS, Mrs. Broussard served as president of The International Relations
14 Association of Acadiana (TIRAA), a group that worked to expand livestock export 15 opportunities; and

16 WHEREAS, Rose Ashy Broussard led a full, purposeful life; a life dedicated to her 17 loving husband and family, her church, community, and a prosperous family business, 18 bringing to each a commitment and enthusiasm that has left a rich legacy.

19 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana
20 does hereby express sincere condolences upon the death of Rose Ashy Broussard, a cattle 21 rancher and rice farmer from Kaplan, Louisiana.

22 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 23 family of Rose Ashy Broussard through her daughter, Yvonne Broussard Simon.
