AN ACT

To enact R.S. 18:602(E)(5), relative to special elections for vacancies in certain local offices; to provide for exceptions; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 18:602(E)(5) is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§602. Vacancies in certain local and municipal offices; exceptions

* * *

E. * * *

(5) If the unexpired term of an office covered by Subsection B of this Section is one year or more and the vacancy occurs within one year of the first election at which a redistricting plan adopted following the most recent federal decennial census is to be utilized, no special election will be called and the appointee shall serve the remainder of the term of office.

DIGEST
2022 Regular Session

SB 73 Original

Hewitt

Present law provides that if the unexpired term of a vacant office in the membership of a city or parish school board is one year or less, the person appointed to fill the vacancy or designated to assume the duties of office will serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Present law further provides that if the unexpired term of a vacant office in the membership of a city or parish school board exceeds one year, the school board must issue a proclamation ordering a special election to fill the vacancy within 20 days after the vacancy occurs.

Proposed law provides that if the unexpired term of a vacancy in the membership of a city or parish school board exceeds one year, but the vacancy occurs within one year of the first election at which a redistricting plan adopted following the most recent federal decennial census is to be utilized, no special election will be called, and the person appointed to fill the vacancy will serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Effective August 1, 2022.
