defined in R.S. 46:1842 shall be as follows: 20 (1) If a victim makes an initial report but declines to pursue any further 21 investigation and the custodian does not pursue any further investigation, the victim shall receive the report as soon as practicable, 22 (2) If a victim makes an initial report and requests further investigation and 23 the custodian declines to pursue further investigation, the victim shall receive the report no later than forty-five days after the custodian has made a determination not to pursue any further investigation, 24 (3) If a victim makes an initial report and the custodian makes an arrest 25 pursuant to an investigation which does not result in an indictment, the victim shall receive a report within one hundred and twenty days after the arrest.
26 (4) If a victim makes an initial report and the custodian makes an arrest 27 pursuant to an investigation which results in an indictment, the victim shall receive a report when it is received by the defense attorney through the discovery process.
28 (5) If the custodian makes a determination that release of the report would 29 materially affect pending criminal litigation or any criminal litigation that can be 30 reasonably anticipated, the victim shall be entitled to receive a status update on the 31 charges and investigation within ten days of such a determination. No custodian may 32 withhold a report from a victim under any circumstance after a period of forty-five 33 days.
