

1 WHEREAS, the Drainage Commission was subsequently merged with the Sewerage
2 and Water Board in order to consolidate drainage, water, and sewerage programs under one 3 agency for more efficient operations; and

4 WHEREAS, Act No. 6 was subsequently made a part of the 1899 Louisiana 5 Constitution; and

6 WHEREAS, Section 35 of Act No. 6 reserved the right and power of the legislature
7 to amend Act No. 6 in any respect not violative of the conditions upon which the special tax 8 was approved by the property taxpayers and not impairing the vested rights of bondholders; 9 and

10 WHEREAS, the legislature amended Act No. 6 on several occasions throughout the 11 years to change the composition of the Sewerage and Water Board; and

12 WHEREAS, many began to question the legislature's authority to make these 13 changes by a simple statutory amendment without the approval of the property taxpayers of 14 the city of New Orleans or an amendment to the state constitution; and

15 WHEREAS, Act No. 36 of the 1934 2nd Extraordinary Session of the Louisiana
16 Legislature made additional changes to the composition of the Sewerage and Water Board 17 by statutory amendment; and

18 WHEREAS, the constitutionality of Act No. 36 was challenged as it was argued that 19 the legislature lacked authority to continue to make these changes through statutory 20 amendments as such amendments impaired the vested rights of the property taxpayers and 21 bondholders and was in violation of the "home rule clauses" of the state constitution; and 22 WHEREAS, in 1935, the Louisiana Supreme Court held in State ex rel. Porterie v.

23 Walmsley that the operation of a board controlling sewerage, water, and drainage was not 24 an ordinary governmental function of municipal government and that the state of Louisiana 25 had the right under its police powers to create, supervise, and define the role and power of 26 the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans; and

27 WHEREAS, the legislature has continued to change the composition of the Sewerage
28 and Water Board and make additional changes regarding its powers and duties by statutory 29 amendment and these changes are sometimes in conflict with the provisions of the home rule 30 charter for the city of New Orleans; and

1 WHEREAS, there is an urgent need for a comprehensive review of the home rule and 2 state law provisions that govern the Sewerage and Water Board to prevent any future 3 conflicts between these provisions.

4 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 5 create a task force on home rule charter and state law provisions relating to the New Orleans
6 Sewerage and Water Board to study issues related to the revision or repeal of state law 7 provisions that govern the board and to provide a written report of findings and 8 recommendations regarding the best strategies regarding the revision or repeal of state law 9 provisions to the mayor of the city of New Orleans, the New Orleans City Council, and the 10 members of the Orleans Parish legislative delegation no later than January 31, 2023.

11 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force shall be composed of the 12 following members:

13 (1) The governing board of the Louisiana State Law Institute shall appoint two 14 attorneys who are members of the institute and who have particular knowledge in one or 15 more of the following: taxes, bonds, political subdivisions, utilities.

16 (2) The governing board of the Louisiana State Bar Association shall appoint two 17 persons who have a particular knowledge of the history of the Louisiana Civil Code.

18 (3) One member of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans elected by the 19 members of the board.

20 (4) One member appointed by the mayor of the city of New Orleans.

21 (5) One member appointed by the governor.

22 (6) One member appointed by the New Orleans City Council.

23 (7) One member of the Orleans Parish legislative delegation appointed by the 24 speaker of the Louisiana House of Representatives.

25 (8) One member of the Orleans Parish legislative delegation appointed by the 26 president of the Louisiana Senate.

27 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the chairman and vice chairman of the task force 28 shall be elected by the members of the task force.

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the member of the Sewerage and Water Board 2 shall call the first meeting of the task force and serve as chairman until one is elected, and 3 the first meeting shall be held no later than September 1, 2022.

4 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all members of the task force shall be appointed 5 or elected no later than August 1, 2022.

6 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 7 mayor of the city of New Orleans, the New Orleans City Council, and the members of the 8 Orleans Parish legislative delegation.
