DIGEST

Present law requires the filing of financial disclosure statements with the Board of Ethics by certain elected and appointed public officials.

Proposed law provides that individuals who contributed or loaned over $1,000 to a campaign and who were employed as an agency head or who were appointed to a state board or commission subject to the financial disclosure requirements of present law are required to record such contribution on their personal financial disclosure forms when the contribution or loan occurred within one year of the employment or appointment.

Proposed law requires that such agency heads or appointees disclose the following:

1. Date of employment or appointment
2. Salary or compensation
3. Name of the candidate or candidates to whom contributions or loans were made
4. The amount of the contributions or loans

Proposed law provides definitions of "candidate," "contribution," and "loan" for purposes of proposed law.

Proposed law otherwise retains present law.

Effective August 15, 2009.
