DIGEST

Claitor (SB 260)

Present law provides that notwithstanding law giving exclusive continuing jurisdiction to certain courts in Jefferson Parish and East Baton Rouge Parish, in cases receiving support enforcement services from the Department of Social Services (department), upon the district attorney's or the department's motion to transfer, a support order payable to the department shall be transferred for subsequent enforcement and modification to the appropriate juvenile court within the parish wherein the support order was rendered or last registered.

Proposed law maintains present law but provides that in East Baton Rouge Parish, a support order may be transferred to the juvenile court or family court.

Effective August 15, 2009.
