EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. The bill adds an additional requirement to CAPCO companies already included within the program. The Office of Financial Institutions already performs the regulatory function for this program and this measure adds another certification provision.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure. The bill appears to provide another certification option that will allow CAPCOs to retain certification for the program. All CAPCO premium tax credit exposure is already expected to be realized and passage of this bill is not expected to materially change the program exposure.
