EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation creates the Statewide Educational Facilities Fund in the state treasury. The fund can receive any monies appropriated to it by the legislature from any source, including federal monies, donations, gifts, grants, or any other monies which may be provided by law. The fund is to be used for the purposes of the Statewide Educational Facilities Authority. The Authority is to collaborate with public school boards to assess the condition of existing public school facilities to determine the deficiencies and needs. Monies in the fund shall be used for school repair, renovation, and construction projects.
