10 and to provide for related matters.

11 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

12 Section 1. R.S. 17:416(A)(1)(c)(i), (ii), and (vi) and (3)(e) are hereby amended and

13 reenacted and R.S. 17:252(C) is hereby enacted to read as follows:

14 §252. School master plans for supporting student behavior and discipline

15 * * *

16 C. The model master plan for improving behavior and discipline within

17 the schools and the school master plans required of city, parish, and other local

1 public school boards by this Section shall not prohibit a teacher from removing 2 a pupil from the classroom for disciplinary reasons in accordance with the 3 provisions of R.S. 17:416.

4 * * *

5 §416. Discipline of pupils; suspension; expulsion

6 A. (1)

7 * * *

8 (c)(i) When a pupil's behavior prevents the orderly instruction of other pupils;
9 or poses an immediate threat to the safety or physical well being of any pupil or 10 teacher, ~~or~~ when a pupil exhibits disrespectful behavior toward the teacher such as 11 using foul or abusive language or gestures directed at ~~a teacher~~ or threatening a 12 pupil or a teacher, when a pupil violates the school's code of conduct, or when 13 a pupil exhibits other disruptive, dangerous, or unruly behavior, including
14 inappropriate physical contact, inappropriate verbal conduct, sexual or other
15 harassment, throwing objects, inciting other pupils to misbehave, or destroying
16 property, the teacher may have the pupil immediately removed from his classroom
17 and placed in the custody of the principal or his designee. A pupil removed from the 18 classroom pursuant to this Subparagraph shall ~~not receive credit for~~ be assigned
19 school work missed and shall receive either partial or full credit for such work
20 if it is completed satisfactorily and timely as determined by the principal or his 21 designee, upon the recommendation of the pupil's teacher.

22 (ii)(aa) Upon being sent to the principal's office pursuant to the provisions
23 of this Subparagraph, the principal or his designee shall advise the pupil of the 24 particular misconduct of which he is accused as well as the basis for such accusation,
25 and the pupil shall be given an opportunity at that time to explain his version of the 26 facts. The principal or his designee then shall conduct a counseling session with the 27 pupil as may be appropriate to establish a course of action, consistent with school
28 board policy to identify and correct the behavior for which the pupil is being 29 disciplined.

at that time to explain his version of the facts.

Present law further requires the principal or his designee to conduct a counseling session with the pupil as may be appropriate to establish a course of action, consistent with school board policy to identify and correct the behavior for which the pupil is being disciplined.

Proposed law retains present law and additionally requires the principal or his designee to provide oral or written notification to the parent or legal guardian of any pupil removed from the classroom, and requires such notification to include a description of any disciplinary action taken.

Proposed law authorizes the principal or his designee to provide oral or written feedback to teachers initiating the removal of pupils from the classroom, and authorizes the principal or his designee to provide guidance and support to such teachers regarding practicing effective classroom management, including, but not limited to, positive behavior supports.

Present law provides that a teacher may request that the principal transfer the pupil into another setting if disruptive behavior persists.

Proposed law authorizes each city, parish, or other local public school board to adopt a policy that requires the parent or legal guardian of a pupil removed from the classroom to attend after school or Saturday intervention sessions with the pupil.

Proposed law authorizes the school board to refer a parent who fails to attend such session to a court exercising juvenile jurisdiction in accordance with present law (La. Children's Code provisions relative to families in need of services). Proposed law provides that each time a parent is referred to the court, the court may impose a fine of not less than $25 and not more than $250, 40 hours of school or court-approved community service activities, or a combination of 40 hours of school or court-approved community service and attendance at a court-approved family counseling program by both a parent or legal guardian and the pupil, and may suspend any recreational license of the parent or legal guardian issued by the Dept. of Wildlife and Fisheries.

Present law provides that a pupil who is suspended or expelled shall receive no credit for school work missed while he is suspended or expelled.

Proposed law requires that a pupil who is suspended for 10 days or fewer be assigned school work missed while he is suspended and receive either partial or full credit for such work if it is completed satisfactorily and timely as determined by the principal or his designee, upon the recommendation of the pupil's teacher.

Proposed law further requires that a pupil who is suspended for more than 10 days, or is expelled and receives educational services at an alternative school site, be assigned work by a certified teacher and receive credit for school work if it is completed satisfactorily and timely as determined by such teacher. Requires such work to be aligned with the curriculum used at the school from which the pupil was suspended or expelled.

Effective August 15, 2009.

(Amends R.S. 17:416(A)(1)(c)(i), (ii), and (vi) and (3)(e); adds R.S. 17:252(C))
