HB No. 901

Abstract: Makes changes in eligibility for state supplemental pay for fire protection officers.

Present law allows prior service of employees who have returned or who hereafter return to such service to be included in determining eligibility for supplemental pay.

Proposed law retains present law. Further provides that any employee who received state supplemental pay prior to March 31, 1986, and returns to such service shall be entitled to receive state supplemental pay whether or not such employee completes training for and obtains National Fire Protection Association Standard 1001 Firefighter I certification or completes training or receives certification from a fireman's training program as approved by the LSU Firemen Training Program.

Effective July 1, 2009.
