

Requests the La. State Law Institute, with input from the La. Supreme Court, to study and recommend guidelines on the professional responsibilities, rights and duties of attorneys who represent fiduciaries, such as succession representatives and trustees.

Requests written report to the Senate president and House speaker at least 30 days prior to the 2011 R.S.