

Harrison

HCR No. 76

Requests the attorney general to study the training requirements for justices of the peace who have attained the age of 70 and consider a reduction or elimination of the training requirements.