

Requests nonpublic high schools to provide to students at least 30 minutes of classroom instruction each year relative to the state's safe haven relinquishment law in health education or a comparable course determined to be appropriate by the school's governing authority.