

Prior law provided that for the registration of securities, the fees are set at a minimum of $25 and a maximum of $200.

New law changes prior law by eliminating the minimum and maximum fee structure and setting the fee at $200.

Prior law provided that for the registration of a dealer, the fee is $50; further, the registration of a salesman is $10.

New law specifies that these fees are applicable to securities dealers and securities salesmen.

Effective August 15, 2009.
