

Prior law specifically created and provided for parishwide economic development districts. Required that such certain districts adopt a development plan within a certain time period and further provided that if a district does not do so, the district shall be dissolved and all power and authority incident to the district shall become null and void.

New law provides for the continuation of such districts which do not adopt a development plan within the specified time period.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.