DIGEST

Present constitution provides that if a vacancy occurs in the office of lieutenant governor, then the governor is to nominate a lieutenant governor who is to take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of the elected members of each house of the legislature.

Present constitution further provides that if the unexpired term exceeds one year, then such person is to serve as lieutenant governor only until the office is filled as provided in present constitution.

Proposed constitutional amendment provides that such person nominated and confirmed to fill the vacancy in the office of lieutenant governor cannot be a candidate at the subsequent election to fill that vacancy.

Specifies submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held on November 2, 2010.
