DIGEST

Present law criminalizes and penalizes cyberstalking, human trafficking, trafficking of children for sexual purposes, felony carnal knowledge of a juvenile, indecent behavior with juveniles, pornography involving juveniles, molestation of a juvenile, computer-aided solicitation of a minor, and enticing persons into prostitution.

Proposed law retains present law and provides for the seizure and impoundment of the personal property used in the commission of any of the following crimes: cyberstalking, human trafficking, trafficking of children for sexual purposes, felony carnal knowledge of a juvenile, indecent behavior with juveniles, pornography involving juveniles, molestation of a juvenile, computer-aided solicitation of a minor, and enticing persons into prostitution.

Proposed law further provides that after conviction of these certain sex crimes, the property shall be sold at public sale or public auction by the district attorney.

Proposed law exempts certain personal property from sale.

Proposed law provides that the proceeds of the public sale or public auction shall pay the costs of the sale or auction, court costs, and fees related to the seizure and storage of the personal property and any proceeds remaining shall be distributed in the following manner:

- (1) 60% to the seizing agency or agencies in an equitable manner.
- (2) 20% to the prosecuting agency.
- (3) 20% to the criminal court fund of the parish in which the offender was prosecuted.

Effective August 15, 2010.
