DIGEST

Present law provides that an applicant for a license to practice as a practical nurse shall:

- (1) Be of good moral character.
- (2) Be a citizen of the United States or have taken out his first citizenship papers.
- (3) Have successfully completed the course in an accredited school for the training of practical nurses.

Proposed law removes the requirement for licensure as a practical nurse of an applicant being a citizen of the United States or have taken out his first citizenship papers.

Effective August 15, 2010.
