HB No. 376

Abstract: Provides with respect to parole revocation for offenders who are subject to the sex offender registration and notification requirements.

Present law provides that any offender who has been released on parole and whose parole supervision is being revoked for his first technical violation of the conditions of parole, as determined by the Board of Parole, shall be required to serve a maximum of 90 days without diminution of sentence or credit for time served prior to the revocation.

Present law defines "technical violation".

Present law provides that the following offenders are not eligible for the 90-day parole revocation period:

- (1) Any offender released on parole for the conviction of a crime of violence as defined in R.S. 14:2(B).
- (2) Any offender released on parole for the conviction of a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:541.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that any offender who is subject to the sex offender registration and notification requirements is ineligible for the 90-day parole revocation period.
