DIGEST

Marionneaux

Present law authorizes capital outlay budget requests submitted after November 1st to be included in the capital outlay bill if any of the following conditions have been met:

1. The project is an economic development project recommended in writing by the secretary of the Department of Economic Development.
2. The project is an emergency project recommended in writing by the commissioner of administration.
3. The project of a non-state entity with a total project cost of less than $1 million is approved by the Joint Legislative Committee on Capital Outlay by the first day of February.

Proposed law deletes the Joint Legislative Committee on Capital Outlay's authority to give approval to capital outlay budget requests of non-state entities after the November 1st deadline.

Effective August 15, 2010.
