

Prior law, relative to criminal proceedings, used "purposes" in regard to allowing a confession into evidence.

New law makes technical correction by changing "purposes" to "purports" in regard to allowing a confession into evidence.

Effective August 15, 2010.

(Amends R.S. 15:451)