

Requires that questions included in any end-of-course examination administered to students pursuing a career major program and curriculum, the passage of which is required for high school graduation, be constructed in a manner that reflects course design and content and the method of instruction employed for the course.

Effective June 22, 2010.

(Adds R.S. 17:183.3(B)(3))