

Prior law contained no provision relative to the self-authentication of electronically generated documents for evidence purposes.

New law provides that electronically generated documents that are associated with electronically generated seals are included in the provision relative to domestic public documents under seal.

Effective August 15, 2010.

(Amends C.E. Art. 902(1))