
The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Michelle Ducharme.

DIGEST

Present law defines "convicted" as adjudicated guilty after a plea or after trial on the merits.

Proposed law changes the definition of "convicted" to mean adjudicated guilty after a plea or after trial on the merits or adjudicated delinquent of a felony-grade act or a misdemeanor-grade act.

Effective August 15, 2011.

(Amends C.Cr.P. Art. 934(3))