

Memorializes congress to provide a cost-of-living adjustment or some alternate benefit increase for Social Security recipients as soon as practicable.