

Urges and requests DHH, in conjunction with the Board of Regents, to study jointly the effectiveness and advisability of the current structure of licensure and certification for midwives as provided in existing law, to determine the most appropriate agency or organization to provide oversight for licensure and certification, and to report study findings to the House and Senate committees on health and welfare and education no later than 60 days prior to the convening of the 2012 R.S.