

New law provides for the implementation of a five-year capital improvement program to include new bond authorizations and repeal of certain prior bond authorizations. Further, authorizes the sale of such bonds by the State Bond Commission.

Effective upon signature of governor (June 30, 2011).