DIGEST

Present law provides for the commissioner to suspend or revoke any permit if there is a misstatement or suppression of the fact in the application for the permit.

Proposed law retains present law and further authorizes the suspension or revocation of any permit for failure to provide information that may reveal any fact that is material to a suitability determination or supplying information that is false or misleading as to a material fact pertaining to the provisions of law that provide for the qualifications of applicants for permits.

Effective August 1, 2012.

(Amends R.S. 26:91(A)(2) and 287(A)(1)(a))
