

---

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Angela L. DeJean.

---

DIGEST

Morrell (SB 94)

Present law provides that the director of corrections shall be the chief executive, administrative, budgetary and fiscal officer of the Department of Corrections and defines the responsibilities of the position.

Proposed law repeals this provision of present law.

Effective August 1, 2012.

(Repeals R.S. 15:823)