Bill Information:

Current Law

The Constitution currently requires the following:

1. All proposed legislation, including legislation relative to public retirement systems, must be prefiled no later than five o'clock in the evening of the 10th calendar day prior to the first day of a regular session.

2012 REGULAR SESSION
ACTUARIAL NOTE SB 21

2. A public notice must be published announcing an intention to introduce legislation that will affect public retirement systems. Such notice must be published at least 30 days prior to introduction of the bill.

House and Senate Rules currently require proposed legislation relative to public retirement systems to be prefiled no later than five o'clock in the evening of the forty-fifth day prior to the first day of a regular session. House and Senate Rules are currently more restrictive than the Constitution requires.

Proposed Law

SB 21 will place before voters a proposed change to the Constitution. If SB 21 is enacted and voters ratify the proposed changes, then:

The Constitution will require the following:

1. All proposed legislation relative to public retirement systems must be prefiled no later than five o'clock in the evening of the 45th calendar day prior to the first day of a regular session.
2. A public notice must be published announcing an intention to introduce legislation that will affect public retirement systems. Such notice must be published at least 60 days prior to introduction of the bill.

Implications of the Proposed Changes

The proposed change will give legislators and staff more time to draft, analyze, and consider the implications of proposed legislation relative to public retirement systems..

Cost Analysis:

Analysis of Actuarial Costs

Retirement Systems

There are no actuarial costs associated with SB 21 for the retirement systems

Other Post Retirement Benefits

There are no actuarial costs associated with SB 21 for the post-retirement benefits other than pensions.

Analysis of Fiscal Costs

There will be a fiscal cost in FY 2013 to the extent there is a cost to place the constitutional amendment on the ballot for approval by the voters.

Actuarial Credentials:

Paul T. Richmond is the Manager of Actuarial Services for the Louisiana Legislative Auditor. He is an Enrolled Actuary, a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, a member of the Society of Actuaries and has met the Qualification Standards of the American Academy of Actuaries necessary to render the actuarial opinion contained herein.
